

Download Submission

Location: Leuven, Belgium

Countered intolerance and discrimination around the idea: “The better we know each other, the more we accept each other.” Created innovative, interactive, educational board game, supported by digital content online, which highlights the diverse people of Belgium to stimulate understanding of others’ daily lives and situations. Over 300 students tested game prototype.

